Part 1: Myths Relating to the Courts, Government, Law, and the US Constitution ~ <https://t.ly/hLq1S>

- Myth #1: Marriage is a government construct over which government and government alone has oversight.
- Myth #2: The federal government, especially through its court system, has absolute authority over marriage.
- Myth #3: The government bestows rights; therefore, the government can take them away.
- Myth #4: The Supreme Court is the final arbiter of disputes in the United States.

Part 2: Myths Relating to Male-Female Differences, Procreation, Parenting, and the Absence of a Mother or Father in Every Home Run by a Same-Sex Couple ~ <https://t.ly/RKXUc>

- Myth #5: Sex differences are absolutely meaningless in marriage.
- Myth #6: The fact that procreation occurs naturally only through heterosexual intercourse has nothing to do with marriage and the family.
- Myth #7: Sex differences are absolutely meaningless in parenting.
- Myth #8: Marriage is really all about adults—not children.

Part 3: A Myth Relating to Sexuality and Procreation ~ https://t.ly/Nk_D6

- Myth #9: Marriage has more to do with sexual pleasure and emotional ties than producing children.

Part 4: Myths About Race and Racism ~ https://t.ly/_oUSf

- Myth #10: The denial of marriage to same-sex couples is akin to the denial of civil rights to blacks during the Jim Crow era.
- Myth #11: The denial of marriage to same-sex couples is akin to denying interracial couples marriage.

Part 5: Myths About Discrimination and Equality ~ <https://t.ly/LSXkS>

- Myth #12: All discrimination is bad and must be criminalized.
- Myth #13: Equality for gays with regard to marriage will be achieved only when discrimination preventing gays from marrying each other is eliminated.

Part 6, Part 7, and Part 8: The “Live and Let Live” Myth:

- Myth #14: Same-sex marriage has implications for the same-sex couple only, and not for others.
 - In part 6 we discuss the implications of same-sex marriage for society at large. ~ https://t.ly/fd8P_
 - In part 7 we highlight how institutions are being affected, especially the church. ~ <https://t.ly/159UO>
 - In part 8 we consider how same-sex marriage is upending the institution of the family. ~ <https://t.ly/1EKS5>

Part 9: Myths About Homosexuality ~ <https://t.ly/9r7XH>

- Myth #15: Homosexuality is on par with heterosexuality.
- Myth #16: Homosexuality is primarily an identity, not a behavior.

Part 10: Myths About Absolute Truth and the Resulting Responsibility of Government ~ <https://t.ly/T9ivl>

- Myth #17: Absolute truth does not exist.
- Myth #18: Because absolute truth does not exist, government can manipulate the meaning of marriage to mean whatever it deems appropriate.

In the articles cited, each myth is exposed as false and refuted with facts and reasonable arguments.

Bonus series: This Christmas-themed series explores various aspects of Mary’s role as Jesus’ mother, and of Joseph’s role as His father by adoption. If Jesus, who came into the world as a helpless baby, needed both a mother and father — and He clearly did — every child does; and a government’s definition of marriage should never deprive any child of either one.
